SYLLABUS

To help select the programme which best fits your students, you will find more details at this link.

LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE

As soon as a student profile is accepted, we will send an acceptance letter to you and your student.

WELCOME GUIDE

Information on accommodation, immigration, health insurance, academic calendars and a list of documents to prepare are available there :

VISA

We strongly advise students who need a visa for France to start their application on the Campus France website as soon as they receive their letter of acceptance.

ACCOMMODATION

Soon after receiving their acceptance letter, your students will also get an email from our coordinators with information on housing and help for accommodation-related formalities. Housing is required for the visa application.

ORIENTATION DAY

Your students will be invited to join the Orientation Day at the start of the semester. This day is designed to welcome them and help them go through administrative formalities.

Their presence is compulsory.
